In Loving Memory

Dorothy "Mama Dot" Pullins

O B I T U A R Y

Dorothy Lee (Coleman) Pullins was born January 3, 1926 in Jacksonville Florida to the late Oley Coleman Sr and Marie Young Coleman.

She was preceded in death by son, Samuel M Pullins; her brothers, Oley Coleman Jr., Raymond Coleman Sr., and her sister Gladys Keys. Dorothy, 97, transitioned on February 11, 2023 peacefully in her home.

On July 8, 1942, she married the late Samuel E Pullins. A lifelong resident of Jacksonville, Florida, Dorothy attended Old Stanton High School, graduating in 1943.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was a faithful member of Grace Baptist Church since 1973. She served as President of usher Board Number One.

God and Family were the pillars of Dorothy's life. She spent a lifetime devoted to loving and caring for her children, grandchildren, family members, friends, and her community. She was a woman who had a very strong will, and the ability to persevere as shown by her raising eight children! She enjoyed being a mother, fishing, feeding the hungry, playing cards, and was a phenomenal cook.

Matthew 25:34-36 was scripture that Dorothy truly lived by "34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: 35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: 36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

Our Mother, will be greatly missed here on earth but we know she's rejoicing in heaven. Job well done Moma Dot. She touched so many lives and her memory will live within our hearts forever.

She leaves to cherish her memories; Eddie Pullins (Veronica), Harold Hunt, Warren Hunt (late wife Kathy), Theodore Hunt, Darrell Pullins (Melba) Darlene Pramley (Eric), Faith Pullins (Charles). Twenty-Eight grandchildren, a host of great grandchildren and great great grandchildren. Special nieces Vonetta Coleman -Wilcox and Gloria Michaels, God daughter Essie Dewey, a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins. A very special thank you to her Caretakers, Roneishia Walker and Harold Hunt.

“YESTERDAY-TODAY & TOMORROW”

“I’M FREE”

Yesterday's dead, tomorrow's unborn,
So there's nothing to fear and nothing to mourn,
For all that is past and all that has been
Can never return to be lived once again.
And what lies ahead, or the things that will be,
Are still in God's hands, so it is not up to me
To live in the future that is God's great unknown,
For the past and the present God claims for His own.

So all I need do is to live for today
And trust God to show me the truth and the way,
For it's only the memory of things that have been
And expecting tomorrow to bring trouble again
That fills my today, which God wants to bless,
With uncertain fears and borrowed distress.
For all I need live for is this one little minute,
For life's here and now and eternity's in it.

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me,
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work and play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh a kiss;
Ah yess, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good time, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free
