I Am Offering This Poem

*I am offering this poem to you Since I have nothing else to give Keep it like a warm coat
When winter comes to cover you Or like a pair of thick socks
The cold cannot bite through*

I love you

*I am offering this poem hoping it Fulfills your heart,
Even when we are apart
Take it, and hold it close to your chest Keep it, treasure this poem as you rest I dedicate this poem to you*

I love you

When I was lost in need of direction You answered and guided me Your presence warmed many Like warmth near a fire Your gift of love was As peaceful as a dove

I love you

*This is all I have to give And all I need to live
So when the world outside no longer Cares if you live or die remember, I will always love you grandma.*

Your granddaughter, Zauria

Footprints

*One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD.
Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD.*

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

*The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you.
During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."*
