

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little – but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared;
Miss me – but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone,
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
Laugh at the things we used to do,
Miss me – but let me go.*

Expressions of Appreciation

The family is deeply grateful for all of your prayers, words of comfort, your visits, your flowers, food, and all other acknowledgements of kindness that you have expressed during the passing of your loved one. Whatever you have done, we are so thankful. May God bless each of you.

Thank you

OBITUARY

*Let not your heart be troubled:
ye believe in God, believe also in me.
In my Father's house are many mansions:
if it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again, and receive you unto myself;
that where I am, there ye may be also.
John 14:1-3 (KJV)*

Ralph “Rock” Davis departed this life on Saturday, December 4, 2010. He (and his twin brother) was born to Mrs. Essie Mae Jones Davis (deceased) the wife of Mr. Edwin J. Davis (deceased).

A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Ralph was educated in the local public schools. He served two years in the United States Army. He was employed with Crown Products Company for twenty-five years, in which he retired as supervisor.

Ralph was known for his gentle smile, his witty sense of humor, and his love for babies – no matter whose baby it was. He was a Harley-Davidson rider at heart.

He was married to Josephine Davis, and from this union, three children were born; Shannon, Tracy, and Ralph Davis (Shari). He also leaves to mourn three grandchildren; Shanay Simpson, MonTre’ Richardson, and LaTianah (Davis) Griggs; one great grandson, the love of his life, Antwaun Riley “Cotton.” He also leaves to cherish his memory three brothers; Ray (Beverly), Elijah J (Waughween), and Charlie Jr. of Detroit, Michigan (Stephanie); four sisters, Mary Clark, Geraldine “Honey Wood”, Betty (Larry), and Elise Wilson of Detroit, Michigan; a very special friend, Ms. Doreen Wiggins; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and sorrowing friends.

To know Ralph “Rock” Davis was to love him.
