

Remembering Kathy Hammock Copes

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.

Obituary

Kathy Hammock Copes was born September 22, 1957 in Philadelphia, PA to Rufus and Trinidad Hammock. On January 2, 2011 she was called home to be with the lord.

Kathy was educated in the Philadelphia Public School System. As an adult, she worked for the First Pennsylvania Bank.

On October 29, 1979 she married Larry Copes and became a Navy wife spanning 20 years. From this union two children were born, Du'Juan and Chavanna Copes.

During the marriage, Kathy made a safe haven for her family in Washington, DC, Groton, CT and Jacksonville, FL where they decided to make there home and then to Naples, Italy.

Kathy pursued her own career as a makeup artist and cosmetic manager. She affectionately touched and had concern for all she met.

Kathy had a zest for life, with her talkative nature and welcoming laugh. She will be greatly missed.

As a mother, Kathy, loved and guided her children into the adults they are now. Leaving cherished memories of special family events an Christmases filled with music, movies, decorations and love. For this was one of her favorite seasons.

Kathy leaves to cherish her memory, husband, Larry; children, Du'Juan and Chavanna; siblings, Trinidad, Anthony and Kevin; mother-in-law, Grace; sister-in-laws, Stephanie, Kathy and Patricia; brother-in-laws, Perry, Lexter and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
